Tit Gomez Grgić joined PKF hospitality group in 2024 and is based in Zagreb, Croatia. In his role as a Research Assistant, his work includes research and concepts + brands for hospitality projects, primarily across Europe. With a passion for both hospitality and business management, Tit brings strong analytical and problem-solving skills to his consulting assignments, making him an invaluable team member.

Prior to joining PKF hospitality, Tit worked with 180 Degrees Consulting Slovenia, where he played a key role in improving a business's social and corporate strategy, resulting in enhanced revenue. His hospitality background includes experience with the National Protocol Service Brdo, where he helped organize and execute VIP events and weddings.

Tit holds a Master's in Management from Deusto Business School and a Bachelor's in Philosophy from the University of Ljubljana. He is fluent in Slovenian, English, Croatian, and Spanish, and his diverse skill set, from hospitality management to consulting, is enhanced by his participation in various roles across industries, including being a contestant on MasterChef.
