Kevin is working for PKF hospitality group in Munich since June 2021. In his current capacity as a Junior Consultant, his activities include feasibility studies (e.g. resort, hotel and mixed-use projects), valuations and assisting annual audits of hotels in Germany and Europe.

Prior to joining the PKF hospitality group, Kevin started his career in 2013 with an apprenticeship at The Westin Grand Munich and Arabella Sheraton, a joint venture of the Schörghuber Group and Starwood (later Marriott). He continued to work for Marriott as a working student and successfully completed internships at two hotel consulting firms.

Kevin obtained a bachelor's degree of Tourism Management with the additional qualification in Hospitality Management at the Munich University of Applied Sciences in Germany.
